

Chinese New Year Air Travel Takes Off

How People Travel for the New Year: Air Travel Takes Off (Millions of Travelers)

Not home for the holidays: China's consumers spent $9.75 billion going overseas during the 2018 Lunar New Year period, up 5% from 2017

Where will they likely go in 2019?

Top 10 overseas destinations for Chinese tourists in 2019, based on advance booking trends:

- | | |
|--------------|----------------|
| 1. Thailand | 6. Malaysia |
| 2. Japan | 7. US |
| 3. Indonesia | 8. Australia |
| 4. Singapore | 9. Philippines |
| 5. Vietnam | 10. Italy |

Source: China National Tourism Administration/Ctrip